Feel Free To Compose
THE FREEDOM TO CREATE.

Frenchmen Ronan and Erwan Bouroullec are among the most sought after designers in the international furniture industry. Their philosophy is: “The objects must be flexible in their application.” For this reason, all creations of the Bouroullec brothers are based on a distinct design approach whereby the products intuitively respond to the user’s needs. Ronan and Erwan Bouroullec like to leave it up to the individual to envision a use for their design objects. With this approach, they tap into the spirit of our times – for we all prefer to live our lives according to our own wishes.

For Axor, they started thinking about their vision of the bathroom as early as 2004. Their Axor WaterDream project was similarly shaped by the idea of placing the central focus on the individual and giving consumers the freedom to adjust the products to their own needs and wishes.

Axor Bouroullec is a collection that is not constrained by a rigid pattern. In fact, more than 70 bathroom products – from mixers, accessories and wash basins to the bath tub – give you the freedom to compose the ensemble that best suits your individual needs. The position of the mixer is not predetermined: you can decide where to locate the spout and handles above, on top of and around the wash basin. Shelves integrated into the wash basin permit flexible positioning of the mixer or provide space to store your personal items. A collection which gives you the freedom to customise your bathroom as never before.
PIECE BY PIECE TO CREATE A HARMONIOUS WHOLE.

Everything flows. Axor Bouroullec is noticeably subtle. Soft shapes without corners or edges flow into each other, striking the eye and beckoning to be touched. The organic, elegant design is never overpowering. All elements form a beautiful ensemble – from mixers and shelves to the mirror.
FEEL FREE TO COMPOSE.

The Axor Bouroullec collection is so flexible it provides us with exceptional freedom and a wealth of possibilities. The individual mixer elements can be placed in various positions above, on top of and around the wash basin. Choose a composition that suits your taste and your needs: For example, the handles can be conveniently placed in the front part of the wash basin to make them easily accessible for children...

...imagine the possibilities!
The Axor Bouroullec collection offers an entirely new, innovative wash basin scenario. The harmoniously integrated shelves are not only attractive design elements, they also provide space for the flexible positioning of the mixer and for storing your personal items. A convenient solution for anyone who enjoys having a lot of space around the wash basin.
OPTIONS TURN INTO MULTIPLE OPTIONS:
A SET OF SHELVES FOR EVEN MORE CREATIVE POSSIBILITIES.
Shelves are an essential design element of the Axor Bouroullec collection. They can be cleverly used in all areas of the bathroom – shower, wash basin or bath tub. Whether as an accessory that creates storage space, as a wash basin element on which the mixer can be positioned, or even as a shelf which performs a dual role as a mixer. You can decide how and where you want to use the shelves.
A shelf that provides water: The technology of the single lever mixer is concealed within the elegant shelf, integrating with ease into the overall bathroom ambience. What more could a mixer offer?

HOW MUCH FREEDOM DO YOU NEED IN THE SHOWER?
HERE ARE A FEW OPTIONS.
The Axor Bouroullec collection also offers a variety of options in the shower: From a classic concealed installation to innovative exposed mixers with a practical integrated shelf, to accessories which perfectly complement the collection with their distinctive design.
Axor Bouroullec also responds to a longing for individuality when it comes to the design of the bath tub. With its generous shelves it leaves ample space to position the mixers and to store personal items. Of course, Axor Bouroullec offers freedom of choice between a concealed and an exposed installation, and between rim-mounted and tile-mounted mixers. In a typical Axor Bouroullec design, the bath tub elements harmoniously blend into the bathroom ambience.
Feel Free to Compose your Bathroom
“Our products are designed to create tranquillity and achieve a natural balance with the space they are in.” Ronan and Erwan Bouroullec define their vision of the bathroom as a place in which all elements come together in a harmonious fusion - with the greatest of ease. They want every individual to feel comfortable when spending time in the bathroom - naked and vulnerable, free and relaxed. A pure ambiance, light and friendly colours and an abundance of warm, natural light invite the person to be completely at ease.

Each individual can enjoy plenty of personal space and find their intimate retreat. In tune with the motto “Feel Free to Compose”, for example two versions of wash basins allow you to create a wash basin according to your personal taste and needs. Be inspired by the Bouroullec designers’ bathroom to create your very own bathroom scenario!
