Attractive bathroom and kitchen solutions, in projects around the world.
hansgrohe. Meet the Beauty of Water.

Our products have been included in almost 35,000 properties around the world since 2006. We've accomplished this by working hand-in-hand with architects, designers, developers, and plumbers. Whether it's a complex shower system or a special finish, we have the right product solution for you. After all, we've been creating innovative bathroom products for over 100 years.

German Design Excellence Since 1901.

Innovative Technologies.

We continuously reinvent products to make the user experience even better, leading to innovations, like Select products, that give you intuitive water control at the touch of a button. Select technology is available for shower products, lavatory faucets, and kitchen faucets.

Award-Winning Design.

We have worked closely with internationally-renowned designers since the 1970s: More than 550 international design awards including iF, Design+ and reddot are testament to our commitment to innovation and design excellence.

Water Savings with EcoRight.

At the Hansgrohe company, every drop counts. Our innovative products and groundbreaking technologies enable you to conserve resources and design sustainably while saving water, energy, and money.

iBox Universal Plus Rough.

One rough to stock, order, install, and service. A designer's best friend, our revolutionary rough gives you more planning freedom and makes specifying shower systems easy.

Quality — Made by Hansgrohe

German quality, assembled in the USA: Our products are designed in Germany by the industry's leading experts, and most of our hansgrohe-branded products are assembled at our North American headquarters outside of Atlanta, Georgia.

Innovation Through the Years.

Founded in Germany in 1901, we have built a reputation as a leader in technology, design and sustainability. The hansgrohe brand offers a large selection of high-quality faucets, showers and shower systems suitable for all requirements and budgets.
