High Quality Accents in the Bathroom with Philippe Starck

AXOR Universal Rectangular Accessories

Shapes help create unimagined possibilities for individual expression in bathroom design. For this reason, the AXOR Universal Accessories collection comprises of three lines, each representing a basic shape: a rectangle (AXOR Universal Rectangular), a circle (AXOR Universal Circular) and a square with rounded edges (AXOR Universal Softsquare). Unadorned and straightforward, with an almost drastically reduced design language, AXOR has now unveiled new rectangular products from the AXOR Universal Rectangular Accessories portfolio, designed in collaboration with Philippe Starck.

The new AXOR Rectangular Accessories set unobtrusive, high-quality accents in the bathroom. Their straightforward design language does not push itself into the foreground but rather underlines personal interior style.

The wide range of products includes a shaving mirror, toilet paper holder and various towel holders, guaranteeing a uniform overall look in the bathroom.
